

tf.contrib.losses.get_losses

get_losses(
    scope=None,
    loss_collection=tf.GraphKeys.LOSSES

Defined in tensorflow/contrib/losses/python/losses/loss_ops.py.

See the guide: Losses \(contrib\) > Loss operations for use in neural networks.

Gets the list of losses from the loss_collection. (deprecated)

THIS FUNCTION IS DEPRECATED. It will be removed after 2016-12-30. Instructions for updating: Use `tf.losses.get_losses` instead.

Args:

- `scope`: an optional scope for filtering the losses to return.
- `loss_collection`: Optional losses collection.

Returns:

a list of loss tensors.
